

Together Agency, a company specializing in DJ hire, band hire, and corporate events, approached clique.agency with the goal of improving their online presence and generating more qualified leads through Google Ads.

Brok from Together Agency faced challenges of low lead generation and high cost per lead, which were impacting their business growth.

clique.agency conducted a comprehensive analysis of Together Agency's business, industry, and competitors, and developed a customized strategy to address their challenges.

Our strategy resulted in significant improvements in Together Agency's Google Ads performance. After 90 days of implementation, the client experienced the following results:

- Increased Leads: Our optimization efforts resulted in a significant increase of 2711%.
- Decreased Cost Per Lead: A significant decrease of 86.5%
- Improved CTR: Dominating the local market representing an improvement of 446%.

“Don't you dare go with another google ads agency!!
We are only half way through our initial commitment with the team at Clique and to say they have overdelivered is an understatement.
Love the team, love the energy.”
